Executive Summary

This proposal is to terminate the PSM Applied Systematics in Botany degree. The PSM program has not had institutional funding for over three years. PSM graduate classes have been dropped from the catalog. The faculty of Botany and Plant Pathology voted to close our program, and has not accepted new students for several years. There are no current students in the program.