Re: Recommended suspension of Mathematics Education major (5620) and the Science Education major (6100)

May 3, 2016

To Whom It May Concern,

This letter is in support of suspending the Mathematics Education major (5620) and the Science Education major (6100) for one year. The masters and doctoral programs within these majors have been moved to the Education major (2310) as options. In one year, we will revisit this suspension to decide it the Mathematics Education and Science Education majors should be terminated.

Sincerely,

Jana Bouwma-Gearhart, PhD
