Draft for faculty senate meeting, 01/11/24

Promotional Criteria for Faculty Research Assistant Rank

Faculty Research Assistant (FRA): a fixed-term paid appointment with primary duties as members of a team under the direct supervision of other faculty researchers. The duties of FRAs vary widely and include project assistance, extension programming, laboratory management, field crew leadership, curation, library research, programming, and more. Ranks are Faculty Research Assistant, Senior Faculty Research Assistant I, and Senior Faculty Research Assistant II.

Eligibility for Promotion: Unless granted credit for prior service, individuals in the Fixed-Term Instructional and Fixed-Term Research categories are eligible for promotion when both of the following conditions are met: at least four years have elapsed since their initial hire date or last promotion, and they have accumulated a minimum of 3.0 FTE years in service since their initial hire date or last promotion.

Use these Fixed-term eligibility calculators for \(9-month\) faculty or \(12-month\) faculty.

At each promotion juncture, fixed-term faculty who have achieved promotion in rank are eligible for multi-year contracts. For further information, see the Academic Appointment Guidelines.

PROMOTION CRITERIA

Strike-through text indicates proposed deletions and blue text indicates proposed additions.

For research effort in the candidate's assignment, effectiveness in conducting and/or disseminating research are essential criteria for appointment or advancement. Evidence of effectiveness is dependent on discipline and job responsibilities. In all cases, promotion is granted for achievement, not for years in rank, and should be based on accomplishments and excellence in the duties described in the employee's position description. All dossiers should also include evidence of contributions to the university's diversity, equity, and inclusion goals.
