

Proposed Changes to graduate program policies around residency and transfer credits for master's and certificate programs

John Becker-Blease (Co-Chair, Graduate Council)

Lisa Ganio (Past Co-Chair, Graduate Council)

Rosemary Garagnani (Graduate School Liaison)

Graduate Council Membership

John Becker-Blease – Co-Chair	College of Business	2022
Ben Mason – Co-Chair	College of Engineering	2021
Theresa Filtz	College of Pharmacy	2020
Lisa Ganio (Past Chair)	College of Science	2020
Mark Needham	College of Forestry	2020
Rebekah Elliott (v. Dykeman)	College of Education	2021
Marc Norcross	College of Public Health & Human Sciences	2021
Megan Ward (v. Akins)	College of Liberal Arts	2021
Brian Dolan	College of Veterinary Medicine	2022
Bruce Dugger	College of Agricultural Sciences	2022
Ricardo Letelier	College of Earth, Ocean & Atmospheric Sciences	2022

5 Proposed Policy/Language Changes

1. Clarifying “transfer credit” language.
2. Reduce the residency requirements for Masters from 30 to 23.
3. Increase the number of transfer credits into graduate certificates from 6 to 9 credits.
4. Limit course overlap between graduate certificates.
5. Establishing unique program capstones.