

OSU Impact Award for Outstanding Scholarship Nomination Form

The OSU Impact Award for Outstanding Scholarship recognizes OSU faculty who have demonstrated outstanding scholarship in a specific project or activity resulting in substantial impact beyond the university setting.

NOTE: The nomination must come from a major administrative unit (e.g., college, institute, center, organization) at OSU. Each major administrative unit may nominate one (1) person. Major units (e.g., college) with four (4) or more subunits (e.g., departments) may forward two (2) nominees.

Eligibility:

- The Impact Award recognizes an outstanding scholarship activity and is therefore open to all OSU faculty members.
- To qualify for the Impact Award, an OSU faculty member's scholarship must be demonstrated by a specific research project or creative activity (e.g., technology; materials; methods; patent; education approach; creation or interpretation in the arts including performing arts; work on a committee, panel, or editorship resulting in a fundamental shift in the field) that was broadly disseminated where the implications of the project or activity were found to have great impact by a broad constituency.

Please briefly summarize why the nominator believes this faculty member should be selected for the OSU Impact Award for Outstanding Scholarship. (maximum 250 words)
