

2019 Executive Committee Candidate

David Nembhard (at OSU since Fall 2016), Professor of Industrial Engineering ~ School of Mechanical, Industrial, and Manufacturing Engineering – College of Engineering

FACULTY SENATE SERVICE: Engineering Faculty Senator, 2019-present

COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING SERVICE: Faculty Status (P&T) Committee, 2018-present (co-chair 2018-19)

SEARCH COMMITTEE SERVICE (at the level of department head and above): Electrical Engineering and Computer Science School Head, 2017-18

UNIVERSITY SERVICE: Institutional Review Board – eRA User Advisory Group, 2016-17

Candidate Statement: Having joined OSU, I have been a tenured/tenure-track faculty member at four different academic institutions, each of which have been both R1 and land grant institutions. This has provided me a range of observations, experience and knowledge that I believe can be of benefit to the EC and, by extension, the Faculty Senate and, ultimately, the OSU mission and our stakeholders.
